

CUA31015 Certificate III in Screen and Media Course Information Brochure (Video and Screen)

Description of Course

In the Screen Stream of the CUA31015 students develop skills in the area of film, audio and online. Students undertake practices of a creative individual and collaborative media products.

Activities/tasks

Units 1 & 2 - First Year

Students complete varied tasks to cover the qualification criteria which may include:

- Planning and recording of a short film
- Sound and audio editing leading to the production of podcasts
- Research on the industry and current trends, careers and professional development
- Collecting and organising content to create a media product for screen or audio

Second Year

- Writing content in response to a pitch
- Websites on a topic of students' choice with appropriate copy for the style of the website. Students will incorporate trainer feedback and test the product before delivery on the due date.
- Develop skills of presentation and production techniques
- Planning and recording of a television show

Assessment

The assessment involves a variety of methods including product assessment, observation and evidence of planning and production, like storyboards. It may involve some short tests. The assessment of overall competence will be undertaken by a qualified assessor and students' competence judged using all of the qualification's criteria.

Students will be given a fair and adequate assessment process that includes the option of an assessment re-sit. If students are still not yet competent after the re-sit then a fee will be charged, this will be the same as for RPL.

Eligibility and prerequisites

Basic language literacy and computer competency levels are pre-requisites. If you have any individual needs please contact the College.
